ABOUT SHALINI BHALLA-LUCAS

Shalini Bhalla-Lucas is an award-winning author, entrepreneur, mental health and social commentator, motivational speaker and the founder of Just Jhoom! – a happiness and wellbeing company. She is also an accredited mindfulness, happiness and meditation coach.

Shalini has taught dance and mindfulness all over the world and has had TV appearances on BBC, ITV, Channel 4, and Kenya Television Network (KTN). She has been featured in publications such as the HuffPost, RED magazine and Top Santé discussing physical, mental and spiritual wellbeing. She is a trained radio presenter and during the Covid-19 pandemic presented a daily segment “5-Minute Mindfulness” on KTN, and wrote for The Star newspaper in Kenya. She has also hosted her hugely popular mental health and wellbeing podcast “Mindfulness, Music & More” on the Nairobi radio station Capital FM for five seasons. Recently she was the Executive Producer for the sell-out, highly-acclaimed mental health theatre production “The Manic Monologues”. She has also spoken for Engage Kenya and TEDx Parklands.

In July 2018 Shalini self-published the Amazon bestselling “Always With You – A true story of love, loss...and hope” her memoir about her love-story with her husband Jeremy Lucas who passed away in 2016 with cancer. Shalini’s second book, “Online Dating @40 – The Nobheads, Nutjobs & Nice Guys”, was published in February 2019. In March 2020 she published a self-help book “Happiness! Is It Simply A Mindset Shift?”

Shalini is passionate about mental health and continues to work tirelessly in the media to ensure better awareness of mental health issues. She is also a strong advocate for improving legislation, policies and healthcare provision.
